

hello my is george c mullins my amatuer call is KC8QWW i have diabetes and it has made me forget things now a lot i can not remember things that i did yesterday so i have tried to learn the code but i can not remember the letters the next day also i have some of the hearing in my ears i was not very smart in school i have only a 6th grade of in school i went to work when i was 16 years old i was only making 65 cents an hour also i cannot spell that good i can read fair i am not that good in math either i am glad that ARRL did submit mthis petition RM-10413 for people like me that are slow learners so people like me can get chance to get on hf bands i think that RM-10413 and WT98-143 i s a good thing for new hams because arrl cares about new hams i support this petition thank you.